A ST. PAUL ROMANCE

An Interesting Story of the Evils of Correspondence.

The Romantic Young Lady and the Young Man With the Eloquent Pen What Came of a Few Harmless Letters Just For Fun—A Death-bed Scene at Which the Chief Mourner Was Conspicuous by his Absence.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 17.—A well-known man about town, and until recently employed in the office of a fuel company, has probably taken his permanent departure from St. Paul. It is well known to his acquaintances that about a year ago he made the acquaintance of a most estimable young lady of this city, who, shortly after their acquaintance was formed, took her departure for Brooklyn, N.Y., for the purpose of studying elocution. A correspondence was solicited by her friend, and he, being a very clever young man with a pen, doubtless made his initial communication so agreeable that the young lady, believing from his connections that he was all he claimed to be, consented to the proposition. That he was an adept in the use of the pen and ink developed itself in a short time, for the result of the correspondence was that he so completely won the lady's affections that a marriage engagement was entered into, and last March fixed for the ceremony. As the date fixed upon drew near, the young man suggested a postponement, at the same time giving a plausible reason for the request, and the lady, still believing implicitly in his honor, consented to the postponement. Another date was fixed, and again a postponement was asked by the fickle lover and again granted. Finally, completely unnerved and miserable beyond endurance at his remarkable actions, the lady determined to come to St. Paul and seek from her recreant lover an explanation in person. She started from Brooklyn the last week in August, and arriving in Chicago her feelings overcame her and she swooned in the depot. She was taken to a hotel and died after two days' illness. The young man was appealed to by telegraph and by the lady's friends in St. Paul to hasten to her side as her illness was considered from the first dangerous in its character. She had in fact been overcome by the strain upon her nervous organization. He finally consented to go to Chicago and left her the day after the lady arrived there but never went near her. She died about an hour before the train on which he was arrived in the city, and was buried in St. Paul two days afterward. Whether he knew of her death or not does not appear, but he continued his journey through Chicago and is now probably in New York or bound for his native Britain. Several confiding creditors mourn his departure, and the friends of the lady who was cruelly and unpardonably victimized are at a loss for words to express their abhorrence and detestation of the gay deceiver. It is the general opinion that he will not return to St. Paul.

VAN METER'S CRIME.

The Evangelist's Son Steals to Gratify Expensive Tastes.

NEWARK, Sept. 17.—Frank L. Van Meter, a son of the Rev. W. C. Van Meter, formerly superintendent of the Howard Mission of New York, has been arrested for embezzling $4,200 from Bailey & Alling, lumber dealers, for whom he had been bookkeeper three years. An expensive supper and lawn party given at his residence about three months ago attracted the attention of neighbors, who spoke to his employers about it. His salary was only $20 a week, and he accounted for his means by saying that New York friends sent him money and furniture. A detective showed that the story was untrue, and laid plans to detect him. Calling at the office of the firm when Van Meter was alone he ordered some lumber and handed Van Meter three marked $10 bills. When the cash was made up for the day the bills were missing. Then a hasty examination of the books showed that he had embezzled at least $4,200. He begged so hard that his wife and two children be not disgraced that the firm, after he surrendered his furniture, decided not to prosecute him. Recently finding, however, that his embezzlement was double what was at first supposed, the firm resolved to arrest and punish him. He was telegraphed to come to the city and select what household articles he wanted to save from the auction. He came over from Brooklyn, where he had just got employment, and went to Mr. Alling's house. Van Meter and Alling walked to the former's late residence, where Van Meter packed a few articles. A constable followed them, and when they arrived at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot Van Meter was arrested. He had a revolver in his hip pocket, and it is thought he meant to shoot himself with it. He is now in the Essex County jail.

When the centre of the Everglades shall have been reached a camp will be established for two weeks and surveying parties sent out. The personnel of the expedition is Major A. P. Williams, of Florida; Colonel F. C. Hopkins and Dr. James Kellum, graduates of the United States Naval Academy, and Colonel F. A. Hendry, the cattle king of Florida. The expedition will take with them six canoes, manned by eight negroes.

Massachusetts Central Railroad.

Boston, Mass., September 17.—It is officially announced that the reorganization plan of the Massachusetts Central Railroad Company is being consummated and negotiations are in progress which will result in saving something for the bondholders. New York parties are in consultation with President Aldrich and the Boston and Lowell Corporation stands ready, it is said, to operate the road at its own expense and risk and to divide the profits, if any, above expenses. The road will probably be opened this fall.

A RAPID FARMER.

A Young Iowa's Experience in Wicked Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., September 17.—"M. McDonald vs. D. Edward Pauline, assumption; demand, $2,000," is the innocent looking title of a suit begun in the Superior Court on Thursday, and suppressed for service. Later a minute on Judge Anthony's docket showed that the suit had been dismissed by stipulation. This was all there was of the case in the courts, but its beginning and ending make a story. The defendant, D. Edward Pauline, is a wealthy young farmer residing near Cornell, Ia. He is a graduate of Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and of Harvard College. On coming of age he found himself the possessor of an estate of over $100,000 in value. His father, the Hon. Edward Pauline, had been a distinguished citizen of Illinois, living at Quincy, and the son made his residence in the same city until, in 1880, he moved to Iowa. He bought a large tract of land near Cornell, and went to farming. He relieved the tedium of a pastoral life, however, by trips to Chicago, where his amusement were more rapid and costly than those to be enjoyed in rural communities. Last Monday he arrived in the city with $3,000 in his pocket, and began to "paint the town red." During the day and night he invested $400 in sundry worldly, liquid and fleshly amusements. Tuesday night found him in Mike McDonald's gambling lair, with $2,600 in his pocket. In a few hours he had lost this amount over the faro table. He had no more money, but thought if he could have one more chance he could "win out." The gambling apartments are above the liquor store occupied by Mr. Michael McDonald. Mike, who happened to be in "the store," suggested that they would gladly cash Mr. Pauline's paper if he was so anxious to retrieve his losses. Pauline drew up two promissory notes for $1,000 each. Mike gave him the cash, and in two hours afterward Mr. Pauline was in Clark street without a cent, and owing Mike McDonald $2,000. The suit was instituted by McDonald to recover on the notes, but D. Edward Pauline raised the $2,000 and paid the notes so as to avoid publicity and newspaper notoriety. Mr. Pauline has gone back to Iowa to see what damage the frost has done to his immense corn fields.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Sovereign Grand Lodge of the World in Session.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 17.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows met here to-day, in annual session. Prominent Odd Fellows from all parts of the world, representing the various jurisdictions, meet annually with this legislative body. On Saturday the distinguished guests were entertained by the local brethren and citizens generally, with a boat-ride and clam-bake. At 10 o'clock this morning, members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge were escorted to the hall and formally received with an address of welcome by the Mayor of the city. It was responded to by the Grand Sir, Ira J. Leach, of Iowa. The reports of the Grand Secretary show a continuous growth of the order numerically, as well as great financial prosperity. Among the prominent members of the order here are ex-Governor Cumbuck, of Indiana, ex-Governor Underwood, of Kentucky, and Hon. Henry C. Hedges, of Ohio. A large number of representatives are accompanied by their ladies. The city is arrayed in holiday attire in honor of the occasion, and, at the close of the session, which will continue during the week, there will be a grand banquet and general social reunion.

AFTER GORE.

An Editor Who Called With Revolver in Hand.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 17.—On Saturday evening the Daily Leader published an article referring to John H. Oberly as "a defunct Democratic politician, and played-out journalist." This aroused the wrath of Colonel Oberly, who is Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and editor of the Cairo Bulletin. He proceeded to the Leader office, pulled out two big pistols, and threatened to shoot C. M. Leek, an editorial writer on the Leader. Great excitement prevailed, but Leek showed great courage, and when going for his gun friends interfered and parted the belligerents. It is feared they will shoot on sight at the next meeting.

AS TO HAZING.

The Idiocy Said to Be Banished at Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 17.—The faculty and students of Princeton College have just had a meeting in the old chapel. After prayer by Dr. Duffield some announcements were made by Dr. McCosh, who went on to state that, hazing and other kindred practices having at last been stamped out, any attempt to "drag their corpses from the grave" would not be tolerated. The courses of the new school of philosophy are now open, through the new doctor said that he expects before long to add two more professors to it, of logic and jurisprudence respectively. The total number of applicants for admission to the college this year is 200. The freshman scientific class will contain forty-five members, being the largest class that has yet been admitted.

An Officer Shot.

SCRANTON, September 17.—A military picnic was held at Bushell's Garden, Dunmore, and the band was annoyed by the dripping of water upon the platform. Officer George Allen remonstrated with a boy who caused the annoyance, when a young man named Warner, son of a justice of the peace in Dunmore, interfered, drew a revolver and shot the officer in the fleshy part of the thigh. Warner was arrested.

Gas Wells.

TOLSON, Ill., Sept. 17.—The furor over the gas wells in this vicinity is receiving a new impetus. A deep well being bored at the residence of C. R. Wyman, living three miles northeast of town, has just penetrated a vein of gas of greater force and volume than any heretofore discovered. It is estimated that the flow of gas from this well will be sufficient to light a large house and supply three or four stoves.

A WATER BONANZA.

The Citizens of Denver and the Water Supply.

The Regular Water Supply vs. the Artesian Well System—How a General Reduction of Sixty Cents All Around Was Brought About—A New Way of Getting Water Developed in a Hitherto Arid Region.

DENVER, Col., September 17.—The Denver Water Company, which enjoyed a monopoly of the business of supplying the city with water until the success of the artesian well became an assured fact, issued a circular making a reduction of rates amounting to more than 60 per cent on all buildings containing more than five rooms. The officers of the company admit that they were forced to take this step because the owners of large buildings would find it cheaper to get water from the well than pay the old rate for Platte water. They think that the reduction will put a stop to artesian well-boring, as the company proposed to sink a sufficient number of wells to supply the entire city through the Holly water pipes. The difference in quality of the two kinds of water is so marked that the people will only use the artesian. The magnetic properties of the artesian water of Denver are among the most important advantages of the system. All of the wells are more or less impregnated with magnetism, though its presence has been attributed to the friction of the tool tubing. The fact is, however, that the water that comes from the artesian well is magnetic in itself. The attention of the reporter was called to the magnetic quality of the water from a well at the side of Wellons street. A knife blade was magnetized by simple contact with the water a distance sufficiently far from the well to make it certain that it was not effected by the tools or tubing. Passing the knife-blade through the sand over which the water ran, it was found, on withdrawing, to be loaded with small parts of magnetic snow. The source of the magnets is thus ascertained to be a stratum of magnetic ore, and the quality of the magnetic fluid is probably determined by the thickness of the stratum at the point of intersection by the wells. This fact is of the greatest importance to the city of Denver. The celebrated magnetic baths of Germany are the resorts of thousands of people annually, the water being the best known specific for nervous prostration and the diseases incident thereto. The magnetic quality of the water from our artesian wells is unequalled now, and its strength can be readily ascertained. That the above mentioned is highly charged is shown by the fact that the knife blade alluded to, which was held in the water but two or three minutes, maintains its magnetism, which is strong enough to lift a common pen, though several days have elapsed since it was put in the water.

SWINDLED IN LACE.

Three Steamship Firemen Arrested for Smuggling.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—John Morrow, John Nolan, and John Thomas were taken before Commissioner Osborne to answer a charge of smuggling, preferred by Customs Inspectors Burns, O'Neil and Carley. The prisoners are firemen on the steamer City of Berlin, of the Inman line. The accused, as far as can be learned, were tools of a fourth man, who escaped. On Wednesday the customs officers saw the men leave the steamer at intervals and suspecting something wrong followed them to a little shop at 315 Spring street. The first man had concealed beneath his clothing a large roll of lace. As the others came in they were also searched, and altogether six rolls of fine laces, worth about $7,000, were secured. The prisoners were held in $2,000 bail for examination, and in default were taken to Ludlow street jail. Each man said he had a family in Liverpool and seemed greatly distressed. They say that they were called into the fire-room by Nick Murray, also a fireman, who asked them as a particular favor to carry a little parcel for him up to Spring street. He rolled one of the packages about his body and directed the others to do the same, and then told them to follow him some distance apart.

TEN YEARS.

Heavy Sentence of a Brooklyn Abortionist.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Margaret Carman, who was tried and convicted at the present term of the Queen's county court of sessions for causing the death by mal-practice of Mrs. Smith, at Freeport, L. I., was sentenced by Judge Armstrong to ten years imprisonment in the Kings County Penitentiary. It is the first conviction for that offense ever had in Queens county. At the trial Mrs. Smith's mother testified that her daughter had told her that she did not wish to be tied to the house and that she was going to see Mrs. Carman. She told her not to go as she might die, but Mrs. Smith replied: "Others have got safely through and I guess that I can." Mrs. Carman is a native of Queens county, and is forty-five years old. She was married when seventeen and has five children. She has long been suspected of carrying on the business for which she has been convicted.

A BIG STAKE.

A Game of Base Ball for $1,000 a Side.

JERSEYVILLE, Ill., Sept. 17.—On the 4th inst. a game of base ball was arranged between a Jersey county nine and a Calhoun county nine, to be played on the 7th inst., at Fieldon, for a purse of $2,000. For some reason the Calhoun club did not appear, and the Jerseyville boys secured the forfeit—$140. A. W. Argus, representing the Calhoun club, came over and proposed to have the game played for the stakes first agreed upon—$1,000 a side. Articles of agreement were at once drawn up and signed, and this time $500 was deposited as forfeit money. The game is to take place on the 19th inst., five miles west of Jerseyville on the Powers grounds. The large forfeit money will make the playing of the game a certainty beyond all question.

A NIHILIST PLOT.

A Conspirator is Caught and Killed Himself.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 17.—Considerable excitement has been created in Court and other circles here over the announcement of the discovery of a member of the Nihilist Society among the suite of the Czarina of Russia, who with her husband, the Czar, are here on a visit to the King of Denmark. It is stated that the Czarina unexpectedly entering her chamber caught one of her Chamberlains in the act of placing a note on her dressing case. Suspecting that something was wrong by the stealthy movements of the man, she withdrew to a place where she could observe his actions. After placing the note and glancing about the room the man withdrew. The Czarina then entered the room and picking up the note, read it. It is said to have contained a threat against the life of the Czar, unless he complied with certain wishes of the Nihilists, and introduced immediate reforms in the administration of justice. The Czarina instantly notified the palace authorities, who in turn summoned the Chief of police, and ordered that the guilty persons be placed under arrest. The culprit, upon being confronted by the police and charged with the offense, quickly drew a pistol and blew his brains out.

LANGTRY AND PATTI.

The Gorgeous Boat They Will Come Back In.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Langtry and Mme. Patti will leave Liverpool October 6, on the new steamer Oregon, of the Williams & Guion line. The Oregon is said to be one of the finest vessels afloat, and will make her first voyage on October 6. Mrs. Langtry and Mme. Patti have secured the two magnificent bridal state-rooms on the upper deck at the cost of $500 each. The Oregon is 520 feet in length, 54 feet beam, and 40 feet in depth, with a gross tonnage of 7,500 tons. Accommodations are provided for 840 first class, 92 second class and 190 third class passengers on the main deck. The dining-saloon for the first-class passengers is a handsome apartment 65 feet long and 54 feet wide, with a ceiling 8 feet high. Above the dining-room is a glass cupola, 25 by 15 feet, giving the saloon at that point a height of 20 feet. The vessel is divided into eleven water-tight compartments and has nine boilers made of steel plates.

VIRGINIA POLITICS.

The Latest Concerning the Mahone Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—It is said by prominent Virginia Conservatives that Governor Cameron, of Virginia, will not issue a writ of election to fill the vacancy in the Harrisonburg district until Congress meets. This district was represented by Paul, a Readjuster. By Mahone's influence he was made a United States District Judge, thus creating a vacancy. Readjusters in the district are clamorous for a writ of election, but Cameron, who through Mahone is well informed as to every precinct in the district, knows that it would go Democratic if an election were held in November, and fearing the effect which this demonstration of Mahone's weakness in a Federal election would produce, proposes to wait till Congress is in session. He thinks Mahone's defeat will be less noticeable then.

A NEW MONEY.

Design for Currency of the Sandwich Islands.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—Hitherto the Hawaiian Government has depended upon the mixed coins of other countries for its currency. Recently it decided to make its own coin and to adopt the decimal system of the United States, with the exception of the dime, for which is substituted an eighth of a dollar as a convenient subdivision of the dollar, half and quarters. A. Loudon Snowden, Superintendent of the Mint in this city, was given the task of arranging for the devices, inscriptions and legends to be placed upon the coinage, and he has just completed the work. The designs for all the coins are very beautiful. The coinage will probably begin in San Francisco this week.

STILL ASHORE.

The Independent's Cargo Likely to be Removed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Italian steamer Independent, which went ashore at Jones' Inlet, L. I., is still on the beach. At the office of Phelps Bros. & Co., the agents of the line, it was learned that several tugs are at work endeavoring to remove the vessel. A representative of the firm went down to the beach early in the day and is superintending the work. No particulars were received at the office, and from this fact the firm conclude that it is safe and will soon be afloat again. It is thought, however, that a portion of her cargo will have to be lightened before she can be floated. Her passengers have all been taken off.

HORRIBLE DEED.

An Insane Mother Pounds Her Child to Death.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 17.—In Abbeville county, on Monday, while the infant child of Betsy Jones was playing on the floor, the mother suddenly seized it by the heels and beat its head and body against the walls and furniture until it was dead, after which she threw it down and stamped upon it. She afterwards took the mangled corpse in her arms, caressed it and placed it in the cradle. She was arrested and adjudged insane, and was lodged in the State Lunatic Asylum in this city.

IN A CYCLONE.

O'Brien's Circus Again Blown to Pieces.

BARRY, Ill., Sept. 17.—While the evening performance at O'Brien's circus was in progress, a terrible storm came up from the southwest, sweeping the entire area of tents before it. Horses and elephants broke loose, scattering in all directions. People became panic-stricken, and in the rush several were injured. A six-horse wagon was blown over into a ditch, killing one man. Two horses were fatally injured, and another seriously hurt.

ON THE WAR PATH.

The Apaches Again at It Smashing Things.

Another Raid on an Arizona Village—Armed Pursuit of the Hostiles—Much Uneasiness Felt for Ranchmen as Parties En Route for Sonora.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—A dispatch from Tombstone, Arizona, dated last Sunday night, says: Eight hostile Apaches jumped Hay Antelope Springs, sixteen miles from this city. Only two men were present at the time of the attack, George Ward and Amos Williams. The former was killed at the first fire of the Apaches, but the latter escaped and brought the news to this city, arriving at 2 p. m. Twenty armed citizens immediately started in pursuit of the hostiles, but there are little probabilities of their being overtaken. The Indians came from the direction of Sonora, where undoubtedly a portion of the hostiles were left in the Sierra Madre by General Crook. They were mounted on bareback horses, and some were without bridles; hence it is believed the animals had been stolen from ranches south of here. Several parties left this place for Sonora during the past few days, and their fate will be anxiously anticipated, as it is feared that they have fallen victims to the savage marauders. The main body of the hostiles are encamped near Casas Grandes, Chihuahua. Their overtures for peace have been rejected by the Mexican authorities, and Col. Joaquin Terrazas was at last accounts organizing troops with the intention of attacking the savages in their mountain fortresses. News reached here via Sonora to the effect that Col. Terrazas while reconnoitering the position of the hostiles had been captured, but this report as yet lacks confirmation.

DAMAGED BY FLOODS.

Result of Recent Heavy Storms and Rain.

PALESTINE, Tex., Sept. 17.—Superintendent Herrin, of the International Railroad, has returned from Laredo, where he has been supervising repairs said to be necessary on account of late heavy storms, rain and floods on the Rio Grande frontier. Near Encinal Station about 2,000 feet of embankment, averaging five feet high, was swept away by the force of the flood. Many bridges along this road were damaged, tracks washed out and culverts swept away. A large force of men was promptly on the ground under Superintendent Herrin's direction, and the road is in good condition now. The Rio Grande & Pacific Railroad, running from Laredo to the coal mine of Ex-Governor Hunt, was badly damaged, all the bridges to the Rio Grande were down, and on the Texas Mexican Railroad the bridge at San Diego is ruined. Every effort is being made by the roads to repair the damage immediately. The storm has been the salvation of the stock region in Southwest Texas, where water has almost disappeared. The water holes are all filled now.

TOO SHARP.

A Freight Agent Who Nipped a Swindle in the Bud.

DANBURY, Conn., September 17.—A man giving his name as F. D. Ballard came to Danbury about ten days ago and mailed about one hundred postal orders ordering small lots of goods in New York, Boston and other places. On Friday he applied for a large number of packages that had arrived, but the freight agent refused to deliver them unless the man could be identified. In the meantime parties in New York telegraphed to hold the goods and Ballard disappeared. Most of the goods have been ordered shipped back to their former owners.

FRANCO-PRUSSIAN.

A Vest-Pocket Edition of the Late War in Texas.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 17.—Two young mechanics, Louis Kunkel and H. A. Francy, a Prussian and a Frenchman, became involved in an angry altercation over the respective merits of the two nations, when Kunkel said he could down a Frenchman, and he whipped out his knife and stabbed Francy in the right side, between the second and third ribs. The knife penetrated the cavity, inflicting a wound from which Francy will probably die. Dr. A. Dansell was called in hastily, and dressed the wound.

LATONIA RACES.

Envoy Wins in the First Heat in 3:17 1-4.

COVINGTON, Ky., Sept. 17.—The first race was three-quarters of a mile, for two years old. The start was made at 2:30 p. m. There were nine flyers. Envoy won in 1:17 1/4 time. Buchman was second, and Adurial third. Envoy is a two-year-old chestnut and is owned by B. C. Bates, of New York. This is Envoy's best time, and as he has always had a poor record, his winning created considerable surprise. In the second race, one-mile-and-a-half for all ages, Harry Gilmore won in 2:38 1/2 time. Katie Creel was second, and Mattie Rapture third. Gilmore is a four-year-old chestnut gelding, owned by Clifton Bell, of Denver, Col. This is Gilmore's best time.

A Frightful Death.

JETERSVILLE, Va., Sept. 17.—Mr. West Hunt, a young theological student, was thrown from his horse Saturday and pitched against a fence, a staple penetrating his abdomen. He died an hour later. At about the same time a brother was thrown from his horse while riding at a tournament in a distant portion of the county and knocked senseless.

Sickness Among French Troops.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The current rumors in Paris for the hurried dispatch of transports with reinforcements to Tonquin are that a great deal of sickness prevails among the French troops.

HILLSBORO—Rev. W. H. Barksdale.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

The attention of manufacturers about moving their location and of those who are seeking a place in which to establish themselves is called to the city of Maysville which offers the following advantages:

Low taxes.
Good water power at low rates.
Cheap living which insures labor at reasonable wages.
Timber, iron and coal near at hand and at reasonable prices.
Access to the great markets of the country by rail and river.
An attractive and healthful place of residence, with cheap rents, churches and good public schools.

The New York Financial Chronicle says the damage to the corn crop by frost has been grossly exaggerated, and that the total loss will not exceed five per cent.

The investigation by the commissioners of the alleged "sugar frauds" at San Francisco, has resulted in a report that there is no just foundation for such charges.

There is reason to believe that recent accessions to the Austro-German alliance will shortly result in Germany issuing a proposal for a general Congress of all the European powers with a view to determining upon a general disarmament. Austria, Spain and Italy are said to have already signified their willingness to participate in such a Congress.

The Boston Journal finds much encouragement for business in the South, that long credit sales are becoming scarce, and large southern merchants are becoming hard-pan dealers, buying on close margins, while the revolution in trade in their section is driving out those who have not the means or the grit to get beyond the old methods.

The last woe of the woodchuck: Two truly rural youths, discovering the tracks of a woodchuck in freshly fallen snow, followed them up and finally succeeded in dispatching the creature. One of them, a poetical turn, thus celebrated the exploit in the village newspaper:

The impaired health of the Rev. Mr. Spurgeon prevents him from being vigorous in his delivery.

The Hon. George B. Loring in his address before the New England Agricultural Society, showed that the farmers of New England are getting richer. He said: "The decline of certain branches of farming, especially of those staples which can be more cheaply produced elsewhere, is attended by an increase of all those products that enter into immediate home consumption; and hence it is that the number of farms has increased, the production of butter has been increased, the sale of milk has become an important branch of dairy, and the aggregate value of the products of the soil is greatly enhanced."

A Professor Pettenkoffer has been making experiments at the largest theatre of Munich to find out, if possible, what is the principal cause of impure air in public auditoriums. He finds that neither gas lights nor electric lights are responsible for the impurity. On the contrary, gas properly used assists in purifying the air. The large amount of carbonic acid present in theatres during the performance is due, in his opinion, to imperfect or insufficient ventilation.

Kentucky Annual Conference of the M. F. Church, South.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Sept. 17.

The services at the different churches yesterday were said to be highly interesting. We have not space to give any detailed report of the services we heard. Rev. Bishop Keener preached in the Methodist Church at eleven o'clock on the work of Jonah. In the afternoon Rev. Dr. T. J. Dodd, of the Vanderbilt University, preached, to the edification of the people, on "Holding the Truth in Uprightness."

At night Rev. G. C. Smith, of Georgia, delivered a very touching and earnest sermon to the ministry: "The disciple is not above his Master, nor the servant above his Lord."

This morning the conference prayer-meeting was held at nine o'clock. The conference was opened by religious services, conducted by Rev. T. J. Godby. The elders of the Danville, Shelbyville and Covington districts, and some of the preachers of the Irvine district were called and made their reports. The bishops then announced that the hour had come for the memorial services. A perfect calm came over the congregation as Bishop Keener read the hymn, "Why do we Mourn Departed Friends?" which was sang. Dr. G. S. Savage then read the memoir of Rev. T. P. C. Shellman, who had died during the past year. Rev. G. C. Smith said he supposed he was the last man on the conference floor who had seen the departed. His words touched our hearts and filled many eyes with tears. Dr. Charles Taylor then spoke of Bro. Shellman as an heroic christian minister. The report of the committee was adopted.

Rev. Dr. R. Hiner then read the memoir of Rev. E. P. Buckner, deceased. Rev. T. J. Dodd then spoke of Bro. Buckner's scholarship, vigorous delivery and preaching ability. Dr. Savage and Bro. Southgate spoke of his religious experience. Revs. Dr. Anderson W. F. Taylor and Bishop Kavanaugh spoke of the hopes, friendship and life of the departed.

Conference adjourned to meet again this afternoon at three o'clock. P.

There are several reasons why the Equitable life takes the lead of all others doing business in the United States. One reason is the promptness with which losses are paid, the society not taking the usual sixty to ninety days time. This is the rule and not an exception. Below is a sample. Any person desiring life insurance would do well to apply to Jos. F. Brodick, Agent, Maysville, Ky.

NEW YORK, July 31, 1883.

The attention of visitors to the fair is called to the superior quality of Maysville hogs. They are manufactured right here in the city by home talent, and in point of genuine cussedness are equal to any in the world. They can climb a stair case, open a gate, break down a fence, raid a dwelling or store, upset horses and vehicles in the street, and generate filth of the intensest quality, and do it more expeditiously than any breed of hogs on earth. They are according unlimited liberty, are exempt from taxation, and we regret to say are not for sale.

The jury that was empanelled at the last term of the circuit court in the case of the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad Company vs. John G. Bacon and others, to obtain the right-of-way over certain tracts of land along the route, rendered their verdict last Saturday. The verdict affirms the report of the commissioners, allowing Mrs. Rachel Ball $375, for the value of the land taken, and the damages thereto. The report of the commissioners allowed John G. Bacon $100 for the value of the land taken, and $100 for damages thereto. The jury in their verdict placed the value of this land taken, at $200 and gave $100 damages.
The report of the commissioners gave the Trippert heirs $125 for the land taken, and $300 for damages thereto. The jury gave $135 for the land taken, and $615 damages. In the case of Moses Moore the jury allowed $100 more than the commissioners, and in the case of Mrs. Louis Roser, they made a reduction of $125, allowing her but $125. In the case of Charles True the commissioner's report giving $100, was confirmed.

NOTES.

Rev. Thos. Hanford is stationed at Catlettsburg, at which place the next annual session of the conference will be held.
Bishop R. S. Foster presided with entire acceptability, and on Sunday preached a sermon of extraordinary eloquence and power.

Barboursville, though a small village, was full and overflowing with hospitality and entertained the conference grandly.
The people seemed greatly to enjoy the exercises and to esteem it a privilege to entertain so many of God's ministers.

The anniversary of the Preacher's Relief Society was a wonderful success.
$2,000 was raised to be added to the $6,600 already funded for the benevolence.

Barboursville is the county seat of Knox county, situated on the Cumberland river, fourteen miles from Woodbine Station, on the Knoxville branch of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and one hundred miles southeast of Danville.

The statistics of membership, salaries and benevolent collections showed the work of the conference to be in a healthy and prosperous condition.

The session closed Sunday night, with memorial services for Rev. W. L. Furniss and Mrs. J. K. Creighton, who have died during the year, followed by reading the appointments by the bishop.

A twin leaf of very bright tobacco, grown by Mr. A. Kidder, on the farm of Mr. C. Holton, has been left at this office.

vealed to Evans that he must increase the number of women in his family cir-

Both commenced firing and emptied their pistols. Hickman missed his mark. One of Gill's shots took effect in the right side of Hickman, fracturing the sixth rib, and passed into his lung. The ball could not be found. It is a very serious wound, if not a fatal one. Gill was arrested and gave bond in the sum of $500.
